SHHH...LISTEN! Come closer. I’ve a secret to tell. I’m going to share it with you and I bet you’ve never heard anything like it before. It’s about a very special bear in the Kootenays. Oh, I know what you’re thinking. You are thinking that all bears are alike. Well, you couldn’t be more wrong.

My story is based on a true event that took place five years ago. You must have heard of the 2010 crime story of Christina Lake in British Columbia that all but wrote itself, and went viral spreading in days all over the world. ‘Don’t Smokey near this Bear,’ declared the New York Post, ‘Grizzly Drug Lords,’ shouted Daily Mail (UK), and for a tear-filled laugh, Russian TV reported it was all too much to bear.

But you haven’t heard the whole story – not yet. The New York Post and the Daily Mail didn’t get it right. Once you hear my side of the story, you’ll understand what really happened. You ready? Here we go.
